Art Unit: 1711

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 16-19 and 145-161 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Woo et al. (US 6,743,523)

The instant claim recite an upper limit of 95% of first component which is broadly an ethylene containing polymer and lower level of 5% second component, a disclosure not supported by the parent and the effective filing date of the instant case is the actual filing date, 7-27-01.

The applied reference has a common inventors with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

Woo et al. in the examples 2-10 at column 10, lines 46 et seq disclose a "monolayer" film crosslinked by electron beam radiation having applicants amounts of polypropylene (PP3505GE1) and polyethylenes such as Engage 8003 or Affinity PL-1880.

It is noted that applicants are claiming a monolayer film not a multilayer film and therefore the application and patent claims are not obvious variations.

Braga, (US 6,204,330), previously cited of interest discloses a crosslinked polyolefin composition requiring numerous polyolefin components. Since applicants films comprise solely a first component and second component (ie two components) the reference does not anticipate or render the claims obvious.

The terminal disclaimer filed on 12-12-06 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of US patent 6,969,483 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Applicant's arguments filed 12-12-05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The term "essentially free" does not appear in the parent case and the effective filing date of the instant case is therefore that of the actual filing date, 7-12-01.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
